

More than a decade after the onset of the Bush Administration's post-9/11 anti-terrorism policies, not a single torture survivor has succeeded in holding a top government official accountable in a U.S. court for the indefensible act of torture. This report lays the groundwork for litigation against those responsible for approving and using illegal interrogation techniques that were the official policy of the Bush Administration. Read more or download the full report.

You may request a hardcopy of the report by e-mailing info@humanrightsusa.org.

Please include "Accountability Report Request" in the subject line, as well as the appropriate return address listed in the body of the e-mail. The cost is $30, and is offered to students for $20. You may also make a request by calling (202) 296-5702.