

Name: John Dimitri Negroponte

Born: July 21, 1939 in London, England

Profession: Unknown

GW Bush Administration Position:

- Ambassador to the United Nations, 2001-2004
- Ambassador to Iraq, 2004-2005.
- Director of National Intelligence (2005–2007)
- Deputy Secretary of State (January 2007 - January 2009)

War crime charge(s):

- Crime against peace – planning and carrying out a war of aggression.
- Steered resolution through UN Security Council that Iraq must disarm.
- Complicity in the commission of a war crime--torture, ill-treatment of detainees.

Primary Association:

- Yale University: Brady-Johnson Distinguished Senior Research Fellow in Grand Strategy and Lecturer in International Affairs at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies

Secondary Associations:

- Vice chairman, McLarty Associates
99 Seventeenth St. NW, Ste 800
Washington DC 20006
Ph:202-419-1420
- Vice chairman, Covington & Burling, a powerful law firm which advises multinational corporations.

More Information:

- Negroponte, A Torturer's Friend
- 6-22-09 Bush officials: Where are they now?

- 7-17-09 Negroponte's Connection with the Honduran Coup
- 10-13-09 An open letter to Yale president and community re Negroponte
- 6-19-14 US-Sponsored Terrorism in Iraq and "Constructive Chaos" in the Middle East

—

—

Note:

—

"These people are being held. And they're bad actors. And as long as this situation continues, this war on terror continues, I'm not sure I can tell you what the ultimate disposition of those detainees will be ¹ ."

"I want to say to those people: haven't you moved on ² ?" \(Concerning criticisms that he covered up death squad activities when he was ambassador to Honduras\)

— ¹ <http://www.time.com/time/nation/article/0,8599,1183242,00.html> —

² <http://www.derechos.org/nizkor/negroponte/laverty.html>

—